

NAME JUNE 26 VISITING DAY AT COUNTY HOME

Further plans for the annual Visiting Day June 26, at the Adams County home were completed at the regular meeting of the county home auxiliary held there Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Lloyd Kleinfelter, chairman of arrangements for the visiting day, urged all members of the Auxiliary to "help out" during the Day, with the members scheduled to serve as guides for persons visiting the home, aiding in operation of various stands and booths, and carrying out other activities.

Members of the Rotary Club of Gettysburg, she reported, will serve as waiters for a platter supper to be served from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. on the Day. Roy Hammond will head the aproned Rotarians who will serve platters consisting of ham or barbecue, cold slaw, potato salad, and potato chips. The platters will cost 40 cents. Coffee, soft drinks, hot dogs, cake, and pie will also be available.

Auxiliary Will Cook

The serving of the platters this year marks the first time the auxiliary has attempted to serve meals at the Visiting Day. Members of the auxiliary will cook.

Fancy work and other articles made by the guests at the county home will be offered for sale, with the proceeds from the sale going to the residents making the articles. For many of the residents of the home, the income received from the sale of the articles at the Visiting Day each year is the only money they have with which to purchase "extras" during the year.

Two bands have been secured, with each to play hour long concerts. In addition other entertainment is being secured in order to have a program throughout the entire period of the day.

Mrs. Orville Faust, Biglerville, will entertain guests unable to leave their rooms at the home by visiting them and playing accordions.

Guest Tickets

Each guest will be given 50 cents worth of tickets with which to buy ice cream, hot dogs, or whatever he may desire during the afternoon.

Parking space will be available on the grounds at the county home in the rear of the driveway. Tours through the buildings will be conducted. Pies, cakes, and home canned and fresh fruits and vegetables will be offered for sale.

Proceeds from sale of articles, other than those made by the guests at the home, go to the Auxiliary to be used during the year to provide various articles and activities for the home.

Miss Elsie Garlach reported that the program of reading to the guests at the home has been discontinued for the summer.

Secretary Appointed

Mrs. Blaine Hughes was appointed secretary to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Clarence Smith who asked to be relieved of the post because of an eye ailment. Mrs. Marie Keller was appointed as assistant secretary by the president, Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox.

Mr. Ira Henderson, chairman of activities for the home, reported the May birthday party was presented by Class 43 of the St. James Lutheran Sunday School. ## Sir Winston Gets Order Of Garter

LONDON (AP)—In a ceremony of colorful ritual and solemn music, Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill will be installed Monday as a member of Britain's most exclusive company of knights—the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

The ceremony will be held in St. George's Chapel at Windsor, where many of Britain's kings and queens are buried.

It will be a moving moment in the life of the 79-year-old statesman. Sharing it with him will be the Queen he adores, Elizabeth II, who elevated him to the exalted knighthood a year ago with the touch of a golden sword in a drawing room of Windsor Castle.

The honor is one he turned down in 1945, shortly after the defeat of his Conservative party in the first postwar general election. He has never explained why he refused them.

CPL. J. SCHULTZ IS SOLDIER OF MONTH ABROAD

Cpl. J. F. Schultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Schultz, R. 3, was recently named "soldier of the month" by the 928th Engineer Aviation Group, stationed near London, England.

In a letter to his parents he wrote: "I was surprised today. There were four of us picked to go before a board of NCOs for the soldier of the month award. I was named and will receive $10 additional on pay day and a three-day pass."

Corporal Schultz, who is serving in England with the engineers attached to an aviation group, has been overseas since last July. He has served 19 months with the Army and expects to be released November 12.

The local soldier wrote of Memorial Day exercises in England.

Honor Yankee Dead

"We had a nice quiet Memorial Day. I guess about the time you were attending services I was doing the same. We went to an American cemetery about 25 miles from here this afternoon.

"There was a nice program. The cemetery is maintained by the English, although all who are in it are Americans. The English have really fixed the cemetery up nice. They have statues of men of the different services and all the work has been done by the people from the town, which is Cambridge."

He reported that an Army band and a color guard of U. S. Marines, Army, Navy and Air Force men took part in the services held for 3,000 Americans who died in World War II.

Corporal Schultz' address is US 5227622, Hq. Co., 928 E.A.G., APO 233, care of postmaster, N. Y., N. Y.

ANTIQUE SHOW SCHEDULED FOR AUGUST 13 TO 15

The Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce tentatively set August 13-14-15 as the dates for their second annual Antique Show and discussed sponsorship of a theater party in conjunction with the opening of the summer recreation season at a meeting Thursday evening in the Engine House.

President Donald H. Becker reported that housing arrangements for the antique show were incomplete and that a site will be announced at a later date. Action on the theater party was postponed pending word from the two local theaters.

It was suggested that the Jaycees sponsor an auction. Ideas were advanced whereby merchandise would be solicited from local business firms and sold on the basis of a percentage profit between the merchants and Jaycees. It was referred to the board of directors.

Summarizes History

Magnus Plaus Jr., treasurer, summarized the national organization's history and objectives. He said that there are approximately 250,000 members.

"The Junior Chamber recovered from a severe blow during World War II—when it lost 85 per cent of its membership—to the point where it now ranks as the world's largest young men's group," he declared.

Becker and Plaus, with their wives, left early this morning to attend the 34th Annual Jaycee Convention at Colorado Springs, Col., as representatives of the local Chamber.

Horace Putnam, Lyons, N. Y., a past president of the New York Cherry Growers Association, presented the report on the can size survey, summarizing discussion held at an afternoon meeting. He concluded by remarking, "One thing is certain, we want to provide whatever size cherry container the housewife prefers."

Royston Speaks

Reginald Royston, of the crop reporting service of the United States Department of Agriculture, told the group the USDA will postpone the annual estimate of the cherry crop to June 15 for the eastern states, in accordance with the wishes expressed by the National Cherry Council in a recent meeting with the USDA.

Royston also described the method by which the crop estimate is made and held that it is basically a growers' report. "You fruit growers are the ones who sent in the estimates locally to your state crop reporting service," he said. "You are the only ones who know what the crop prospects are, you are there in your orchards at the time." He urged a survey of the cherry orchards to determine from year to year how many trees there are of bearing age as a basic background for the crop estimate.

Everett Wiles, Bangor, Michigan, president of the Michigan Cherry Growers Association, reported prior to Mr. Royston's talk on the meeting of his committee of the National Cherry Growers with the USDA officials asking delay in the cherry crop estimate. He said the action was taken because growers held that while no one could make an estimate as of June 1, a more accurate estimate could be given about two weeks later on in the season. Wiles said "No one could ask for more cooperation and sympathy than we have received from the USDA."

Cherries For Schools

H. A. Rogers, Traverse City, a past president of the national cherry group, said the council urges processors to provide cherries for the school lunch program sponsored by the federal government. While discussion indicated that the

CHERRY GROUP HOLDS MEETING AT KNOUSE FOOD

Approximately 100,000 young women are expected to take part in the National Cherry Pie Baking contest next February according to reports presented at this morning's meeting of the National Red Cherry Institute at the Knouse Foods plant, Peach Glen.

Inclusion of Hawaii and participation by all 48 states, plus vastly increased activity in most states is expected to double the approximately 50,000 who have been participating in the event the past few years. The contest is open to girls and boys of high school age. Most of those participating are members of the home economics classes in the schools.

The institute agreed to again appropriate $1,500 for scholarships in home economics in state colleges as a result of the success of the cherry pie contests.

Set Research Project

A recommendation from the National Red Cherry Council that $2,000 be appropriated for research whether the 303 or No. 2 container was the most suitable in which to pack cherries was adopted and expanded by the Institute. The council comprises the growers of the country. The institute is the promotional group working closely with the council.

According to plans agreed on at this morning's session, the study on cherry can sizes may result in development of a No. 2 1/2 size can.

Lee Wenger, Sandusky, O., chairman for last year's National Cherry Pie Baking contest, said home economists with whom he worked in the event have strongly urged a No. 2 1/2 size container to hold sufficient cherries for a full 9 inch pie. They

Here And There News Collected At Random

Our attention has been called by a local resident to the appalling loss of birds and animals on the highways, all struck by motor vehicles. He said that on one trip to Harrisburg he counted 42 bodies on the highway. He said that a little caution and care, and "perhaps, braking your car for a moment will save many of these lives."

It is not possible to learn the exact number of birds and animals killed on Pennsylvania highways in a given period. The reason is that even though a scrupulous record were kept some of the dead roadway victims would be removed by predators or humans prior to being counted. Others critically injured would succeed in getting off the right-of-way and out of sight before dying.

Anyone who motors over the Commonwealth in all seasons knows the annual loss of birds and animals to vehicles is tremendous. It remained, however, for a highway superintendent named Harry H. Sutton, of Indiana, Pa., to provide figures as accurate as obtainable on a county basis.

Game Protector Bruce W. Catherman says highway employees under Sutton's supervision reported removing these numbers of wild creatures from Indiana County roads in 1953: cottontail rabbits, 3,018; ring-neck pheasants, 156; woodchucks, 139; squirrels, 153; skunks, 124; raccoons, 36; porcupines, 48. About every species of furbearer, game bird and predator found in the county was listed in smaller number by Meanwhile, William E. Brady, 27, of McSherrystown, remained in a critical condition at the hospital, it was reported. He has fractures of the skull, left leg, left elbow and right knee and chest injuries. He also suffered from shock.

Mrs. Smithover's husband, James, is serving in the armed forces. The victim, who had been employed at Emeco Corporation, Hanover, is survived by her husband, two sons and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Runk, Spring Grove R. 2.

85 PERSONS AT PHONE DINNER

L. R. Thurston, president of the United Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, spoke at a dinner Thursday evening at the Moose home to honor Gettysburg district employees of the company. Eighty-five workers from Gettysburg, Biglerville, Fairfield, and York Springs were present.

In reviewing the company's record, President Thurston said that, in the past 10 years, telephones in the Gettysburg district have increased from 2,600 to 6,000, and that the four exchanges now handle an average of 27,000 calls a day.

The facilities and service expansion program, which the company has carried on the past decade, is being continued in 1954, he said. Projects currently underway, including those in the Gettysburg district, will cost an estimated $3,000,000 this year.

John Caldwell, local manager, was master of ceremonies at the dinner.

FACES CODE CHARGE

Juan Antonio Diaz, 127 S. Franklin St., has been issued a ten-day notice to appear before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore on a charge by borough police of operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license. The violation occurred May 30 at 1 a.m.

He was a great-grandson of President John Adams, second President of the United States.

150 STUDENTS BEGIN COLLEGE SUMMER COURSE

Approximately 150 students started summer school at Gettysburg College Wednesday. The first term of six weeks will end July 16. The second will begin July 19 and end August 28.

Dr. Richard A. Arms, professor of mathematics and director of the college, is director of the school. The enrollment is a decline from the large enrollments of past years when many returning students began college careers with summer school or carried on through the summer in order to complete their education in three years. However, the school includes a number of students who are seeking to finish the college course in three years.

Others in the school include a number of pre-teaching students who seek to become qualified to teach three subjects instead of the two in which they would normally qualify through attendance at the regular sessions only, and a number who desire a double "major" in their school work instead of the usual single "major" and gain the required additional credits by attendance at the summer sessions. Some are attending to secure credits in subjects not taught in other colleges where they are students, or which they cannot attend during the regular class periods because of conflicts.

MEADE WILL HEAD DIVISION

"General Meade" will head the Fourth Division in the annual Battle Anniversary parade July 1. Members of the parade committee at their meeting Thursday evening at the engine house found a lot of amusement in the use of the name "General Meade" as the leader of the division.

The "General Meade" is the old steam Sibley fire engine owned by the company, which will be drawn by a team of horses at the head of the Fourth Division of the parade. General Meade, the man, was the commander of the Union forces in the Battle of Gettysburg.

The section of the parade to be headed by "General Meade" will be the horse division made up of riders from the local riding club. Final details on the parade were being worked out today, after a number of suggested changes were made at Thursday's meeting. Chairman Donald Jacobs presided at the meeting.

cherry industry does not need the federal purchase of cherries for the school lunch program, dieticians have indicated a welcome addition to school lunches. Pointing out that "the government is spending the money for the free lunch program and it does provide children with better food at lower cost," he added:

"Some food will be bought with the money and we are fortunate that cherries are selected. The program not only provides food for the youngsters, but serves as a good advertisement for us. Youngsters who never before ate cherry desserts like them and tell their mothers about it, and thus our market is increased."

Praises Growers

Dewey Boster, Harrisburg, chief of the Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service, praised the growers for their support in sending in estimates at the request of the service, and urged even wider cooperation saying, "the better response we obtain from the growers, the better service we can give you."

William Powell, executive secretary of the National Cherry Institute, reported on the activities of that group during the past year. Newspaper coverage of the national cherry pie baking queen event "if paid for at space rates would have cost $6,500,000," he said. Much of the advertising obtained by cherry growers is provided by "tie-ins" with other products, such as ice cream, flour, sugar, etc. He praised food editors of the nation "for their interest in promoting cherries."

Mrs. Helen Byrnes, Shiremansdale, introduced her daughter, Miss Nancy Byrnes, the champion Pennsylvania cherry pie baker in the February contest.

Miss Byrnes said she and the other seven "queens" from the state would be present at the State Grocers Convention at Atlantic City. Mrs. Frederic E. Griest, Florida Dale, will serve as chaperon for the "queens" while they are attending the convention.

Thursday the wives of the men attending the council meeting were conducted on a tour by Mrs. Ryland Garretson, Benderville, wife of the president of the Pennsylvania Cherry Growers. Among the sites visited was the Elsenhower farm, where they had obtained special permission to drive past the premises. They were guests later in the day of Mrs. M. E. Knouse at a tea.

FOUR WINNERS FROM ADAMS CO. IN FFA CONTEST

Four Adams county youths were winners in the contests held this week at Pennsylvania State University during the annual summer Future Farmers of America Week there.

The 74 youths and agriculture teachers from Adams and Franklin counties who attended the sessions returned home late Thursday afternoon.

Class Contest Awards

For the contests the top ten were awarded placings in the gold medal class; the next ten won first through tenth place in the silver emblem class, and there were ten placings for the next ten youths in the bronze emblem class.

Donald Mickle, Fairfield, competing with 249 boys in a livestock judging event took sixth place in the silver emblem class. Donald Boyer, East Berlin, competing with 400 boys in the dairy events, won ninth place in the silver emblem class.

the highway men in that 12-month period. Deer removed from highways by workers totaled nine, close to one-sixth the number picked up by game protectors. The total of all wild birds and animals removed from thoroughfares by Indiana county highway workers in 1953 was 3,710.

Such figures cause thoughtful persons to wonder that Nature, even with man's assistance, can offset the inroads of predators, disease, the elements, and mechanical predators. But she does it sufficiently well to supply sportsmen with a pretty reasonable supply of game and fur annually.

Suggestive that too many animals called house pets roam forests and fields to the detriment of small wildlife are the numbers of road-killed domestic predators removed from Indiana county highways last year. The total of dogs was 413, of cats, 671.

claimed both 303 and No. 2 cans were too small to hold enough cherries to properly fill one pie.

As a result the institute will seek cooperation from the United States Department of Agriculture to discover by research the best possible size for cherry containers.

Name Research Committee

Horace Putnam, Lyons, N. Y., a past president of the institute, H. A. Rogers, Traverse City, Michigan, also a past president of the institute, and James Ryan McCue, representing Western Advertising Agency were named by Institute President Garry S. Morgan, Traverse City, as the committee to arrange for the research program.

One of the institute members told the group: "We shouldn't care even if the housewives want cherries in paper bags. The survey should find out just what is the best size container and then urge the processors to put the cherries up in that fashion."

McCue told the group that limited funds last year cut advertising outlays to 14 major markets, but that extensive advertising in those markets during April to move the "old crop" increased sales 59 per cent over the same period for the prior year.

He outlined a campaign of advertising including newspapers, magazines, radio, television, trade publications and printed matter for the coming year.

STATE WAITING 96 YEARS FOR UNPAID LOANS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The commonwealth is waiting patiently today for 66 cents. It has been waiting for 96 years.

The sum is just one of numerous debts still owed the state from the great canal building days before the Civil War. The 66 cents is part of $141,320 carried on the books of the auditor general's department as unpaid principal of loans made by the commonwealth.

Actually the 66 cents isn't such a bad debt after all. It was originally part of a $2,348,680 loan to build canals in 1832. In those days canals were considered the most economical means of transporting freight overland—then came the railroads. The debt was due to be paid in 1860. All but the 66 cents found its way into the state treasury.

At the other end of the debt scale is $96,003 loaned by the state in 1841 for relief loans. The maturity date of the loan was 1870.

During the Civil War the Confederate Army moved into Chambersburg and burned the town to the ground. The state loaned money to the sufferers. Some $90.40 is still owed on the loan.

The Pennsylvania Canal and Railroad received a loan of $60,043.72 in 1844, but somehow couldn't quite pay back the full amount. They still owe $18.50.

Oldest debt still carried on the state's books is a loan made in 1821 "for expenses and other purposes." Of the original loan of one million dollars some $230 is still outstanding.

"I THINK OF YOU"

When shadows fall across the sky... and stars burst into view... I turn my thoughts to happiness... and so I think of you... I meditate when evening comes... to veil the closing day... for in the garden of my heart... there blooms a sweet bouquet... I pick the flowers one by one... for each holds special bliss... recalling wondrous memories... of when I shared your kiss... so many, many times before... I've looked upon these flowers... but they grow sweeter through the years... to bring me happy hours... and so it is when shadows fall... and stars burst into view... I turn my thoughts to happiness... and so I think of you.

Fears Threat To Government Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Granahan (D-Pa.) has told the House Ways and Means Committee that unless unemployment benefits are extended to government workers "it will seriously undermine any future attempt the government might have to make in time of emergency to talk people into leaving other jobs and taking government jobs."

Granahan appeared before the committee yesterday to urge an increase in unemployment benefits. The Philadelphia area also asked that the law be amended to make government workers eligible for unemployment benefits.

He is co-sponsor of a bill to increase unemployment benefits by about 50 per cent and to extend the payment period from 26 to 33 weeks.

Bill Prevents Job In Answer Refusals

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Clardy (R-Mich.) today offered a bill to ban from federal employment any witnesses who refused to answer congressional committee or loyalty board questions.

Clardy, a member of the House Un-American Activities Committee, said the measure was aimed mainly against former government workers who still have status on the civil service roster but who have invoked the Fifth Amendment guarantee against self-incrimination when asked about subversive activities.

Under the broad language of the legislation, however, the employment ban would apply to witnesses refusing to answer on any subject whatever their reasons—even, Clardy said, if they were forbidden to talk by presidential order.

Frederick G. Fisher Jr. holds up statement in his Boston law office (June 10) in which he said his name "had been dragged" into the Army-McCarthy hearings "because Sen. McCarthy thought this would be a clever way of embarrassing the Army." Fisher, 32, is a junior member of the law firm of Army's special counsel, Joseph N. Welch. Fisher, chairman of the Young Republican Club in nearby Newton, said he always had and always will "detest communism." McCarthy said Fisher had been "a member of an organization... named... as the legal bulwark of the Communist Party."

GETS DEGREE IN MEDICINE

James H. Teeter, Baltimore, son of Mrs. Margaret R. Teeter, Taneytown, and the late John S. Teeter, received the degree of Doctor of Medicine Saturday at graduation exercises at the University of Maryland, College Park.

Dr. Teeter, who was graduated from the Taneytown in 1944, served in the U. S. Army. He resumed his education at Gettysburg College in 1947 where he received the Bachelor of Arts degree in 1950.

While he was a college student he married the former Miss Mae McDaniel, of North Carolina, who was a member of the nursing staff at the Warner Hospital. They have two sons, Timothy, age two and a half, and Paul H., six months.

Upon graduation from college he entered the University of Maryland Medical School. For the past two years he served as junior intern at the South Baltimore General Hospital. He will serve a year's rotating internship at Mercy Hospital, Baltimore, beginning July 1.

Local persons who attended the graduation were his mother and sister, Mrs. Teeter and Mrs. Robert Clingan, Taneytown, and Attorney Daniel E. Teeter, Gettysburg. He is a brother of John D. and William Teeter, both of Gettysburg.

MILLHAND IS ARRESTED IN PLOT TO SLAY

BARTOW, Fla. (AP)—Questioning of a new alleged triggerman was the big order of business today in the investigation of the Lake Wales murder-for-profit plot.

This man, Raymond James, 32 a Pensacola millhand, was arrested there yesterday on a charge of conspiring to murder K. H. Gerlach. He was brought here during the night.

Sheriff Pat Gordon said he had information that James agreed to kill Gerlach, 81-year-old wealthy Lake Wales calendar manufacturer, for $5,000 but balked when principals would pay only $2,500 in advance.

In this case James is accused of conspiring with Willard Durden, Orlando building contractor, and Emmett Donnelly, Lake Wales lawyer. Donnelly killed himself Tuesday after being released in bond in three other murder conspiracy cases.

Durden and Donnelly were arrested Monday and charged with a second conspiracy against Gerlach's life and plots to kill two wealthy widows, Mrs. Byrd Roach of Lake Wales and Mrs. Louise Hawley of Orlando.

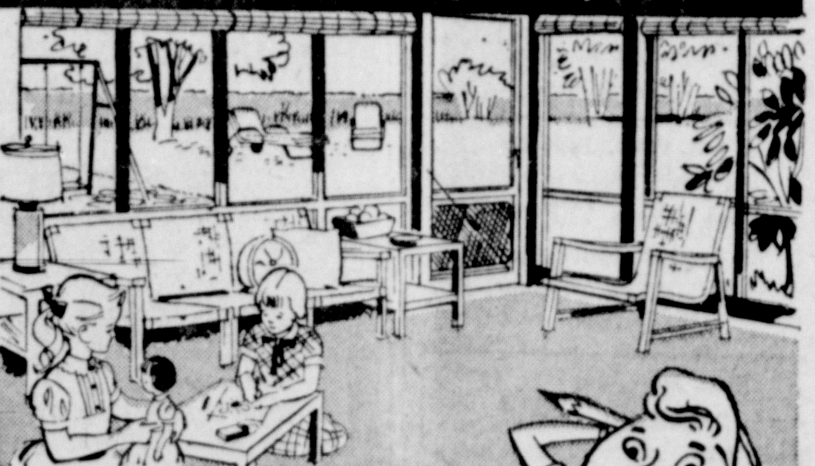

Sheriff Gordon said Durden confessed to these three conspiracies with Donnelly alone, and that Durden tagged the lawyer the mastermind. He was freed in $5,000 bond. Donnelly handled the financial affairs of all three and stood to profit by an unchecked handling of their funds when they died, investigators said. Durden admitted he was to get $25,000 for arranging the deaths of each one, Gordon said.

But Durden, rearrested after James was brought into the case, denied knowing anything about a plot with James. He was held in default of $15,000 bond.

FRENCH BLAST RED BASES IN RED RIVER AREA

By FORREST EDWARDS

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—French airmen flying U.S.-supplied fighters struck in the night against two Vietminh guerrilla bases within the Red River Delta and an ammunition dump of the rebel regulars massed around the Delta's rim.

A French spokesman announced 50 tons of high explosives were loosed on the ammunition dump at Yen Bay, on the Red River 75 miles northwest of Hanoi, and guerrilla concentrations at Binh Ngo, 12 miles east of Hanoi, and Decau, 25 miles southeast of this war capital.

Kill 23 Rebels

Elsewhere in the Delta, the spokesman said, French Union troops pushed mopping up operations against guerrillas and infiltrating units of Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap's Red command. He said 23 rebels were killed and three captured yesterday.

Gen. Paul Ely, France's new military and political chief in Indochina, arrived here last night with the promise he would lead the fight against the Communist-led rebels in the area. Ely said he had come to Hanoi from Saigon because he believed the commander in chief should be with his fighting men.

Vietnamese Premier Prince Bui Loc and members of his war Cabinet also met in the city for the first time. At their session last night, they drafted a vest-pocket "GI Bill of Rights" designed to speed the badly lagging plans to increase the Vietnamese army to 500,000 men by the end of the year.

15 YEARS AGO
British Rulers are Welcomed By Roosevelt: Washington, June 8 (P)—A smile and a friendly handshake from President Roosevelt and the booming salute of military honors welcomed King George of Britain today to a capital of a republic grown great from thirteen one-time English colonies.

Their faces crinkled into cordial smiles as their hands met as if to symbolize ties of friendship between two English-speaking peoples who parted the ways in 1776.

Secretary of State Hull, who accompanied King George and his Queen from Canada, introduced them.

Two Secure Positions With Baltimore Firm: Mahlon P. Hartzell, Jr., East Lincoln Avenue, and Walter Kuhn, of Hanover, formerly of Gettysburg, have secured positions with Corkran, Hill and company, Inc., Baltimore.

Today's Talk

THE GREATEST GIFT

Bring out every kindness and good deed into the light so that it can spread like a vine and cheer people. It isn't money that most people lack—it's love and appreciation. Many, with the means to buy anything, would far rather have these than anything material. To make people happy, from the substance of your heart, is the greatest gift of all.

When we render a kindness to some one else, or give that one encouragement, the reaction is so pronounced that a new kind of happiness is born anew to us. I have never met a selfish person who was genuinely happy, but I have met and known endless others whose very faces glow with the joy that they have distributed.

How many of us have heard the expression, from some one who had been told of a happy experience thus: "Did he get paid for it?" People can be paid in heart currency! Dividends of joy and happiness continue throughout life to those who think and perform for others. Millions of people must have read of that Japanese gardener in Miami, Florida, as condensed in the Reader's Digest for June from The Christian Herald. Its title: "Happy Where Heart Is."

Often, when a prominent man or woman dies, people ask how big an estate was left. As though that mattered most! Many a public servant has left possessions all around the world. The influence of a single book has meant more than anything money could buy. In a great book, the author has scattered himself through the ages. It's his greatest gift.

Fabre, the scientist, devoted a long lifetime to the study of insects, opening up a whole world of beauty and wonder to us all. That was his heritage to each one of us. And he was so thrilled and happy throughout all his years. He left knowledge—not material wealth.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Faith For The Day." Protected, 1954, George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks

ONLY UNDER FREEDOM
I believe the ballot better than are bullets fired in hate.
I believe that freedom's better than a regulated state.
I am sure no tyrant master, how so strong he gets to be,
Ever dares to let his people know the pride of being free.

I believe the Lord intended every one to think and speak;
That the strong men of a nation should always befriend the weak.

I believe good will is better than are strifes that never cease,
And that only under freedom can the way be found to peace.

I put no faith in cannon or in bombs that spread despair.
I know that war leaves hatred, deep and lasting, everywhere.
I believe we're all God's children.
(Oh, how patient He must be!)

As He waits above and watches 'till we've set the whole world free.

EDEN, RUSSIAN PLAN PRIVATE TALK ON PEACE

By MAX HARRELSON

GENEVA (P)—British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov planned to meet privately today or tomorrow to decide what to do next about the deadlock threatening the Indochina peace talks.

Eden suggested the meeting yesterday after admitting that the nine-party parley might as well concede failure and go home unless it can narrow East-West differences without further delay.

There appeared to be no evidence that either side would make the concessions required for agreement.

One highly important Western diplomat said: "The failure of the conference certainly seems to be within sight."

Awaiting the outcome of the Eden-Molotov meetings, the Indochina talks were in recess. The two diplomats are the chairmen of the conference.

A meeting of the 19-nation Korean conference, however, was set for this afternoon. This, too, is deadlocked and Western diplomats already have written it off as hopeless.

The Eden-Molotov discussions were expected to consider three possibilities:

1. That the talks should continue in semi-public meetings, such as those of the past three days, which allow the fullest publicity to the proceedings.

2. That the negotiations should be carried on in secret, with all parties formally bound to withhold information from the press. The conference has held a dozen such meetings but information has always leaked out.

3. That the conference should arrange talks by smaller groups or by two or more representatives, such as the meetings now going on between the representatives of the two military commands in the Indochina War.

BUDGET SAVING

BOSTON (P)—Rep. Ernest A. Johnson of Worcester, a barber, and Charles E. Shepard, a farmer who is budget director for a legislature ways and means committee, worked out a system which allows state agencies to use existing funds to make necessary repairs and replace essential equipment as the need arises. Such out-of-hand repairs, with only the approval of the state budget commissioner, are credited with being far more economical than waiting a year for an appropriation—while the state property deteriorates. Johnson thinks savings are as high as a million dollars a year.

DUFF WARNS OF ATTACK DANGER

PHILADELPHIA (P)—Sen. James H. Duff (R-Pa.) said last night that for the first time in history this nation is in actual danger of being destroyed by armed attack. While Russia has long-range bombers "scattered from the Baltic to the Pacific," he in this country "are not in shape to protect ourselves against mass air raid attacks without suffering inconceivable damage," the senator warned in an address at the 101st anniversary dinner of the Bachelors Barge Club.

White Sox And Yankees Open Crucial Four Game Series In Yankee Stadium This Evening

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

If you feel the urge to make a friendly wager on tonight's big clash between the Chicago White Sox and the New York Yankees, you might consider backing the Yanks to win by one run while using at least two pitchers.

The white-hot White Sox come into Yankee Stadium for a four-game series leading the American League by a game and a half. They've won 16 of their last 19, seven of them in a row.

But a lot of visiting winning streaks have become mere memories in Yankee Stadium.

Lost Two In Row
The last time Paul Richards' hustlers lost two in a row to the same team was the last Yankee series in Chicago when the White Sox led after seven innings in each game only to get beaten 4-3 and 3-2.

The White Sox had a day of rest yesterday as rain washed out their scheduled game at Philadelphia. The Yanks took batting practice against Detroit, beating the Tigers 9-5 on home runs by Yogi Berra, Bobby Brown and Mickey Mantle.

Cleveland fell a game and a half behind Chicago by losing to Washington 8-4. Baltimore took a pair from Boston 5-1 and 9-0.

The New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers continued to share first place in the National League. The Giants edged Milwaukee 1-0 on Bill Taylor's 10th-inning, pinch-hit homer. The Dodgers beat St. Louis 7-4. Philadelphia defeated Chicago 6-0 and Fred Baczewski, of Cincinnati pitched his second straight shutout, 6-0 over Pittsburgh.

Tonight's Game
Tigers vs. Cubs, 6:15 p.m.

The league-leading Giants broke a two-game losing streak by snapping a two-game winning streak of the Yankees in a well played Little League game 3-2 Thursday evening.

One of the biggest thrills of the game came in the first frame when Giant pitcher Richie Weikert, showing exceptionally fine control, struck out the first three batters on nine straight pitches. Out of the six innings Weikert pitched, only 22 tosses were balls. When the rain came Rich gave three men free passes and allowed five hits. On the opposing mound was Joel Riddemoser, Yanks' southpaw, who gave up seven hits, struck out five and passed three men.

Yankees Take Lead
The Giants started fast with one run in the second base when McCarty singled, Hull walked, a fielder's choice to put Ahrens on base and send McCarty home. In the top of the fourth the Yankees went out in front as they collected two runs. Riddemoser sent the second pitch sailing into deep center field for a home run. With one out Shultz walked, stole second as Richardson went down swinging, and scored on Swope's sharp single to right.

The Yanks 2-1 lead didn't last long as the Giants came to bat in their half of the fourth and scored twice. John Ahrens led off with a double to right, took third when Miller walked, and came in with the tying run due to an infield error. With two out Bob Zhea lashed out a single to send in what was eventually the winning run.

Ahrens, McCarty, and Weikert blasted out two hits each for the winners. Riddemoser led his team with two hits, including a double and home run.

TO HOLD TRACK MEET SATURDAY

DOWNTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A number of winners from the recent Middle Atlantic AAU meet at Harrisburg will be on hand tomorrow for the eighth annual Downtown Young Men's Assn. track and field meet.

Among the teams to be represented are the Harrisburg AAU, the Harrisburg AAU, the German-American and Christian Street Clubs, both of New York.

Two double winners in the Harrisburg competitions have been entered here, Richard Hart, of the Collegiate Club, and George Snyder, representing Shanahan. Hart won the mile and three-mile runs at Harrisburg, while Snyder won the 100 and 200 dashes.

Vic Fritts, former Penn State star, will be seeking the high jump blue ribbon.

1-ARMED BALL PLAYER, 14, AMazes COACH

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Some boys might have quit. But 14-year-old Ken Burdick went to bat with only one arm.

Freddie-faced Ken plays right field for San Juan High School's junior varsity baseball team and has a .333 batting average.

He does it all with his left arm. He lost his right in a ski town accident six years ago. It was amputated just below the shoulder.

Coach Len Frizzi was amazed when Ken, a slender youth, turned out.

"I didn't know just what to do," he recalls, "I realized the boy had plenty of courage. I figured he wouldn't make the club, but perhaps could work in as manager."

Has Keen Eye
But Ken began hitting well and Frizzi found he had "a fine eye."

Of that eye, his coach says: "I'm not exaggerating when I say he can judge a pitch at the plate better than anybody on the JV squad and as well as any varsity player."

He is a modest boy, crediting his brother, Gary, a second baseman on the varsity, for helping him so much. "Gary played catch with me and helped me get into sandlot games," he says. "Because of that I was able to play."

How does he do in the field?

There again, he amazes Coach Frizzi. He catches the ball, rolls it into the crook of his elbow and simultaneously sticks the glove under his right armpit. Then he flips the ball into his hand and gets it away—all in just a few seconds.

KILLED IN CAVEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A Philadelphia Gas Works Co. employee was killed and another injured in a cavein while they were digging in an attempt to locate a reported gas main leak in southwest Philadelphia today.

William Berry, 32, was dead when rescue workers reached him at the bottom of the 15-foot deep trench. Melvin Coursey was buried to his waist but was dug out alive and taken to Philadelphia General Hospital.

Ike's Scorecard Leaves Runner Stranded On Base; Final Score Is Correct

By FRANK ECK

How does President Eisenhower keep a baseball box score?

On opening day Ike visited Griffith Stadium in Washington to see Bucky Harris' team beat Casey Stengel's champion Yankees. The chief executive, who played some baseball at West Point, also saw a game on May 29.

But it was the opening day game that shows his scoring technique. After the Senators won the game in the 10th inning, 5-3, on Mickey Vernon's home run, Ike autographed his score card "to Clark Griffith—from his old friend—Dwight D. Eisenhower."

Later on pictures of the first presidential scorecard were taken. In the 10th, Ike's card properly shows a base on balls for Washington leadoff hitter Eddie Yost. After Alie Reynolds fanned Tom Wright, Vernon hit his game-winning homer.

Forgot His Run
But here Ike erred. While the president records the score as 5-3, in large figures on his card, his 10th inning total gives Washington only one run. In his excitement of "root, root, root for the home team," Ike still has Yost on first base. He forgot to score him as a run.

Also, in the ninth inning when the Yankees threatened pitcher Chuck Stobbs, Sonny Dixon came to the rescue with two out. Dixon eventually became the winning pitcher. But Ike never noted Dixon's appearance in the game—at least not for the (scorecard) record.

However, when one carefully examines all the evidence as to hits and how many batters went to the plate in each inning, it can be seen that Ike knows a lot about our national game.

Ike's Symbols
If you care to keep score like Ike here are some of his symbols:

Strikeout—SO.

Wases on Balls—W.

Sacrifice Bunt—SH.

Fielder's Choice—FC.

Force Out—FO.

Fly to Center—FO 8.

Single —+.

Double—++.

Home Run—#.

In the first inning the Senators went down in order. Yost grounded out, short to first. Ike notes the play as 6 to 3. That is the mark of a good scorer. Some fellows from the old school call the shortstop 5 but all big time baseball writers call all shortstops 6.

Ike might save time on strikeouts. Instead of SO he could K the culprit who fans, as the writers do. For a single he could use a single dash and two dashes for a double. His symbol (#) for a home run resembles a tic-tac-toe box, but it's not a bad idea since all home runs look alike in the box score.

All in all, Ike knows what the score is, even if technically he still has Yost on first base.

An eight-man advance detachment of National Guard troops from Virginia arrived yesterday to set the camp in order for the reception of troops of the Virginia National Guard's 176th Regimental Combat Team.

The Virginia troops, first of four groups to take advantage this summer of the military installation, will encamp at the base for two weeks beginning Sunday.

Other groups scheduled for training periods are: The Ohio National Guard, July 3-17; Blue and Gray 29th Division, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia, July 24-Aug. 7; and Pennsylvania's 28th Division, Aug. 14-28.

PURCHASE OF HORSE PROVES GOOD GAMBLE

RIVERHEAD, N. Y. (AP)—Two years ago Pat Tuccio, a 35-year-old Italian immigrant who deals in used cars and dabbles in harness racing, paid $4,000 for a trotting mare he had never seen. The gamble is still paying off handsomely.

The mare, Katie Key, earned $79,337 for Tuccio since he bought her from Julius Sitz of Wakeney, Kan., in the summer of 1952. Recently at Roscarft Raceway in Baltimore she set a track record of 2:03 for the mile.

Not only that but Tuccio is going to accept an offer to race his 7-year-old mare in Sweden this fall. He has been guaranteed $15,000 a month, plus expenses.

"First I'd like to see her fulfill her engagements at Roscarft and Laurel," says Tuccio. "Then there are some big summer races around, like the $35,000 Roosevelt Raceway trot on July 15.

Will Enter Big Ones
"I might even go over to Sweden in October to see her race. I've stipulated that she will race only once a week, on Sundays when they have the big races in Sweden."

Trotting's Cinderella horse first lifted eyebrows last fall when she captured the $50,000 Roosevelt Trot with veteran Clint Hodgins driving. After that she trotted a 1:59 1/5 mile at Lexington, Ky. It was one-fifth off the mark set by Tillie Brooke in 1924.

Gap Prepares For Summer Guard Units
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Preparations were underway at the Indianapolis Gap Military Reservation here today for the first phase of a 2½ month summer training program for men from five states.

Other groups scheduled for training periods are: The Ohio National Guard, July 3-17; Blue and Gray 29th Division, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia, July 24-Aug. 7; and Pennsylvania's 28th Division, Aug. 14-28.

AMOS DENOUNCES

INTemperance

Amos 2:11-12; 4:1-2; 6:1-7

Key Verse: Let us conduct ourselves becomingly as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness. Romans 13:13.

The social life in Bethel, the capital of the Northern Kingdom of Israel, had sunk to alarmingly low depths. This was the place where Abraham had built an altar to the true God, and had worshipped there. It was also here that Jacob had his vision many generations before. Now idol worship had been introduced and the God of Abraham abandoned. Consequently, a flock of evils had descended upon the land.

In this crisis the Lord God called Amos, the prophet, from his herds to preach and prophesy the apostate Northern Kingdom. What this lay preacher found there, especially in the court life and among the wealthy and privileged classes, was shocking. Immorality, greed, oppression of the poor, intemperance—these were among the evils that threatened the kingdom. And against these and others Amos "roared like a lion." Amos also found that two commendable practices were opposed: prophecy and the Nazirite movement, if we may apply a modern term to the latter. The godless interfered with both.

These two practices originated in very early Hebrew history and came into prominence in the time of the Judges. The Nazirites did not trim their hair and abstained from drinking wine. In this way they showed their disapproval of the dissolute who cut their hair and oiled their heads. And by abstaining from strong drink they protested against drunkenness. They were, in this respect, like the total abstainers of our day. Amos charged that the Nazirites were made to drink wine, and that the prophets were commanded not to prophesy.

Drunkenness is a current evil in our present-day society. We do not have to consult tabulated statistics to prove this; we need only to note the daily crimes, and the hardships endured by families and individuals where excess drinking of liquors is customary. All too many broken homes are the result of drinking where children are the chief sufferers. And there seem to be little progress, if any, in curbing this evil among us.

Vigorous language is employed and in poetic form to make it impressive, by Amos when he speaks of drinking in the home. He addresses the drinking women as "cows of Bashan" as they call to their husbands. "Bring that we may drink." One wonders what the prophet would call our modern consumers of cocktails! Amos reminds us, by implication, that the home is one of God's foremost institutions. In it children are taught the meaning of such virtues as obedience and love, and receive training for happy and useful living under God's protective care and guidance.

As the passage from chapter 4 suggested, the evil influence of intemperance in the home, the passage from chapter 6 points to the effect of excessive drinking on national life generally. Here Amos addressed Zion, the Kingdom of Judah, as well as Israel. He refers to a self-satisfied nationalism, "at ease in Zion," and "feel secure on the mountain of Samaria." The nations were governed then by men who lived a proud and relaxed life; they "laid upon beds of ivory," ate of the choice meat and drank wine in bowls. No mere wine glass would satisfy!

"The ruin of Joseph" hints at the downfall of the nations under the rule of self-indulgent rulers. It all came to pass in later years when the Assyrians came and conquered. The warning of the poet-prophet Amos was of no avail. The same fate came upon other sinful nations since then, and will surely come again.

Crisis In France May Block Allied Effort In Indochina

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. officials are deeply concerned over the political crisis developing in the French government. They fear it will have a further paralyzing effect on Allied efforts to halt the Communists in Southeast Asia.

For the fact which stands out in connection with the diplomatic-military campaign which the Communists are relentlessly pressing is this: while the Allies are held to the council table at Geneva, cope with political controversy in Paris and generally debate the conditions for action on Indochina, the Red high command gives every evidence of pressing for a decision on the battlefield.

One Western diplomat put it this way: "There has been a lot of discussion between the United States and France about training Vietnamese troops, but by the time they get it all settled the Vietnamese may not be here to train any more."

Allies Are Trapped
The box in which the Allies are trapped for the moment is roughly this:

1. The British government has committed itself to work for peace in Indochina and to make no commitment on action there until peace hopes are exhausted.

2. French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault has openly expressed discouragement at Red policies at Geneva, but if Bidault is on the way out his ideas would not matter much any more. Any way there is a certain amount of sentiment for peace at any price in the French Assembly.

3. The United States has laid down a number of conditions which would have to be fulfilled before it would even consider intervention in Indochina. At least in part, steps toward fulfilling those conditions have been blocked by British and French preoccupation with the Geneva negotiations, which U. S. officials considered futile from the start.

May Lose Three
4. The United States two or three weeks ago thought of forming a united front without Britain. But unless Britain goes along, new Zealand and Australia have indicated they are not interested.

5. In Indochina the Vietnamese troops are reported in part demoralized by Communist victories. There is a loss of trust between European and native elements of the anti-Communist forces.

6. A change in U. S. policy is always possible but has not been indicated. One of the conditions is that Congress must approve but administration officials evidently are convinced that their best, perhaps only, hope of congressional approval would be to ask authority to act as part of a coalition which would include Britain and France.

Says China May Attempt Expansion

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles says there is a danger that Communist China may try to capture "free world positions in the western Pacific with a view to driving the United States back to California."

Without specifying which positions he had in mind, he warned the Red Chinese to keep "hands off."

Addressing the San Francisco World Affairs Council in a brief stopover last night in a whirlwind West Coast tour, he said if Red aggression occurs in the western Pacific the United States will consider it a "direct threat."

PRIVATE SETTLEMENT

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The James Roosevelts are settling privately the sizzling separation row in which she accused him of adultery with a dozen women.

Their attorneys announced this yesterday, two days after the late President's eldest son won Democratic nomination for Congress in California's 26th District in a state primary election.

PAY KIDNAPPER $75,000 RANSOM FOR YOUNG WIFE

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A great manhunt spread around the Superstition Mountains today for an armed kidnapper with $75,000 in ransom money.

He kidnapped Mrs. Evelyn Ann Smith from in front of a Phoenix beauty parlor Wednesday and freed her in the mountains late yesterday.

The 23-year-old wife of a wealthy Phoenix pipe and steel company executive was unharmed.

Her ordeal ended when her husband Herbert struggled up a hill to her side after a masked man had fired at him with a rifle.

Smith, following instructions contained in two notes, had taken $75,000 in $100, $50, $20 and $10 bills into the purple-tinted Superstitions towering over the central Arizona desert.

The kidnapper picked up the valise containing the ransom and vanished into the brush and cactus. He was carrying a rifle and a revolver.

FBI Hunts Kidnapper

With Mrs. Smith safe at home with her husband and two children, FBI agents and state and local officers circled the area where the ransom was collected. Roadblocks were thrown up. Desert-wise sheriffs' deputies threaded through the rugged country with bloodhounds.

They were hunting a short man described as 35 to 40 years old, with light brown hair, muscular arms, large mouth and ears and close-set eyes.

Mrs. Smith told officers that her kidnapper had said he was dying of cancer and "pulled the job so I can have one last fling."

The kidnapping was replete with bizarre elements. The ransom note was placed in the side pocket of Smith's golf bag, which was left at a desert service station. A note of instructions on payment of the ransom was delivered to Smith's home in a bouquet of roses. Two other notes were left under piles of rocks which designate mining claim boundaries. The ransom note warned one of these sites was mined with dynamite.

Great Windshield Mystery Is Solved

SEATTLE (AP)—Take a long-time accumulation of pockmarks in your windshield, mix well with sudden public interest in the matter and you have the probable recipe for this spring's windshield-pitting epidemic, two University of Washington scientists reported today.

The recipe was the result of an intensive investigation into every reported possible cause of the pitting—from sandflea eggs to the H-bomb—conducted by Harley H. Bovee, a research chemist, and Ross N. Kuslan, director of the university's Environmental Research Laboratory.

The sandflea eggs and H-bombs were ruled out quickly in the deadpan report.

The facts, the scientists said, support only a "normal road damage theory."

Mexico Joins Fight On Guatemala Reds

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexico, a chief critic of U. S. efforts to fight communism in the Americas, stood ready today to join in a hemispheric study of charges that the Reds boss neighboring Guatemala. Acting Foreign Minister Jose Gorostiza announced last night his government would go along with the "general sentiment" among the American republics for such a review.

Since Mexico has been one of Guatemala's staunchest defenders in this hemisphere, her consent virtually assured the holding of an inter-American conference to find out what is going on in the banana-producing republic 1,000 miles northwest of the Panama Canal.

Ike Pledges All-Out Fight To Uproot Subversives, Asks For Unity In Legislative Program

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower pledged last night to stay "everlastingly" at the job of uprooting subversion, and appealed for political unity on his legislative program—including his embattled flexible farm price support plan.

In a nationwide television and radio address, the President turned to the language of the atomic world and urged:

"Let us have less political fission and more political fusion."

And he called for speedy approval by Congress of a program he described as a "potent package of protection against communism."

He addressed some 1,000 members and friends of the Citizens for Eisenhower Congressional Committee. When he concluded, his World War II mess sergeant, Marty Snyder, jumped to his feet and bellowed:

"Who are we going to elect in 1956?"

Roar For Eisenhower

"Eisenhower!" the crowd roared back. The President grinned.

The more immediate job of the citizens committee — organized in 1952 to woo Democratic and independent votes to the Eisenhower presidential banner — is to try to increase the November elections the slim margin by which the Republicans now control Congress.

The President's speech was his first full-scale plug for his legislative program since he announced June 3 that from then on he was going to use every possible opportunity to call for a speedup of congressional action on it. With less than two months to the July 31 adjournment target date, most of the program is still far from law.

Applauded 32 Times

Eisenhower called it a program "essential to a stronger America," and he pleaded: "Let us, therefore, not rest until these laws are passed."

He was interrupted 32 times by applause with the biggest demonstrations coming when he:

1. Promised to "keep everlastingly at the job of uprooting subversion wherever it may be found." He said he felt he was not being egotistical in saying, "Every American believes that of me."

2. Declared with respect to his controversial plan to shift from rigid to flexible lower-level farm price supports that he is "completely unmoved by arguments as to what constitutes good or winning politics." He said he has been told by many that the farm plan—already once voted down by the House Agriculture Committee — is not good politics in an election year.

Backs Tax Program

On the domestic side, he urged enactment of his tax revision program, saying it is designed to assure a fairer distribution of the tax burden. The bill has been passed by the House and will come up for Senate action soon.

He also prodded the lawmakers for conclusive action on extension of unemployment insurance, expansion of social security coverage and an increase in benefits, the administration's health and housing programs, and a broader plan for rehabilitation of disabled people.

Second Man Dies In Plant Explosion

DETROIT (AP) — Francis E. Murphy, 44, died yesterday of injuries suffered Wednesday in a blast that shook the Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Co. plant in Suburban Wyandotte.

Ray Mehling, 30, a plant worker, died several hours after the explosion at the big chemical center. Seven others were injured.

J. T. Gormally, superintendent of industrial relations, said the blast occurred during the first use in actual production of a new process for removing the dust from detergents. Cause of the explosion has not been determined.

Pepper Tossers Outsmarted

Police struggle with two men minutes after a $4,495 payroll was snatched from a paymaster into whose eyes pepper had been tossed, in Boston Thursday. The men, William J. Cavanaugh, left, 22, and Santo M. DiFeiro, 22, were booked on suspicion of robbery. Police happened to be passing in a cruiser at the time. Officers, from left, are: Donald Bortz, Daniel Donnelly and Bernard Sweeney. (AP Wirephoto)

SYNGMAN RHEE TROUBLES MAY BEGIN AGAIN

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — This country's troubles begin again with Syngman Rhee, South Korean President, if the Geneva conference fails to produce a peaceful settlement. It seems sure to fail.

The diplomats, Western and Communist, have talked six weeks at Geneva about Korea and Indochina. No positive results. The conference can't last much longer.

Ever since the armistice last summer, Rhee has opposed the division of his country into North and South Korea. Repeatedly he has threatened to wreck the truce if the diplomats can't agree on a way to unite Korea.

He now has 20 divisions, 650,000 troops, trained and equipped by the United States. In addition, the United States and the United Nations have about 250,000 of their troops in South Korea.

"No Man's Land"—a no man's land 4,000 yards wide—are a million Communist troops; 350,000 North Korean, 650,000 Chinese. The North Koreans hold most of the front-line positions. The Chinese are behind them.

They have fortifications, bunkers and caves, for 20 miles behind the front. It is the opinion of American military leaders that Rhee could not crack that defense.

If his troops ran into disaster, only U. S. and U. N. intervention could bail them out. And that would mean full-scale resumption of the Korean War.

When the Geneva conference breaks up, assuming it's a failure, and Rhee starts talking of attack again, U. S. officials will have to try to keep him talking instead of acting.

There have been no clashes in the no man's land, which stretches across Korea for 150 miles. Each side has an armed patrol of about 1,000 men who roam their side of the demilitarized zone.

But Rhee could start the war going again by pointing one big gun northward and pulling the lanyard.

FDR Granddaughter Gives Birth To Son

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt di Bonaventura, granddaughter of the late President F. D. Roosevelt, gave birth to a son yesterday at Washington University Hospital, Washington, D.C. The child's father, Anthony di Bonaventura, a pianist, who made his debut at 10, is serving in the army. The couple was married here June 12, 1953.

Mrs. Di Bonaventura is the daughter of James Roosevelt, eldest son of the late President, and the former Betsy Cushing, now Mrs. John Hay Whitney.

reached and no group course of action was proposed.

"The governor of West Virginia, along with personal representatives of Maryland and Kentucky, stated they were not confronted with as serious a problem as some of the Southern states, and that it was their intention to conform with the decision of the court."

"The other states represented, eight by their governors, found more of a problem. The conference was most helpful and it has been suggested that the attorneys general consider holding a later meeting to discuss the situation in more detail from the legal viewpoint."

"It is recognized that the problems are ones requiring the decision of individual states and that a meeting of this kind can only be helpful in the exchange of information. The gravity of the situation in many of the states was emphasized, but no conclusions were

Represent 15 States

Governors of nine states and legal and educational representatives of six other states attended the meeting, which was initiated by Virginia's Gov. Thomas B. Stanley. At the conclusion of the meeting Stanley read to newsmen this statement:

"The states indicated they will not file briefs, as the Supreme Court invited them to do, before the court issues its final decree, Georgia's Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook told reporters at the conclusion of the five-hour conference.

EVALUATE HARD COAL PROGRAM

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower will receive "before too long" an "evaluation" of a 15-point program of aid to the unemployment-hit hard coal area of northeastern Pennsylvania, Gabriel Hague, White House economic adviser, said last night.

Hague said that under his direction the White House economic staff took the program—suggested to the White House in May by a group of Pennsylvania political, civic, industrial and labor leaders—broke it down and assigned parts to about eight federal agencies. The agencies have or will draw up comment and recommendations on the various sections and send those back to the White House.

"We'll try to determine to what extent the proposals have any pay-dirt," Hague said.

After sifting through the original proposals and the agency comment, he said, the White House economic staff will coordinate and judge all the material and give the President a consolidated report with recommendations.

The President then is to decide what action the government should take.

G. E. GRAMMER IS EXECUTED FOR MURDERING WIFE

By BOB MCHUGH
BALTIMORE (AP)—George Edward Grammer, once a prosperous New York businessman, dropped to his death from Maryland's gallows early today for the murder that was almost a "perfect crime."

The state accused Grammer of beating to death his 33-year-old wife on a sultry August night in 1952 so he could be free to marry a pretty United Nations secretary. Grammer admitted he killed his wife, but he claimed he hadn't planned the crime.

little girls was found in an autoing drive down a Baltimore hill.

Pebble Was Clue

Police found a pebble lodged beneath the accelerator to force it into an open position. Their alert discovery led to a trail of damning evidence and the 37-year-old New Yorker's ultimate conviction.

Grammer earned $600 a month
as office manager of the Climax Molybdenum Co.

The burly, six-footer went to his death without a trace of emotion. He had a glass of milk and a bun for breakfast yesterday and passed up the traditional last meal.

The Rev. Benjamin Blubaugh, a Methodist minister, was with Grammer all day from 9 a.m.
until shortly after midnight, when he accompanied the condemned man to the gallows.

In the execution chamber, a bleak room with a high ceiling,
Grammer was stoic to the end.
He raised his head and closed his eyes as the hood was dropped

Grateful Banker Gives $2,000 To Cops

HARRISBURG (AP)—City policemen were remembered in the will of George W. Rely because they helped him cross streets when his sight failed.

Rely, prominent Harrisburg banker who died last week, in his will filed here for probate yesterday bequeathed $2,000 to the City over his face.

Two other death house inmates,
Sylvester Madison and David
Floyd, prayed aloud with two Catholic chaplains as Grammer stood on the death trap.

He made the drop of six feet and six inches at the end of the state's rope with their litany audible in the background.

There were signs of life from the husky 200-pounder for a full four minutes. He was pronounced dead 13 minutes after the final plunge.

His body was placed in a stark white stretcher and delivered to relatives. A slipper from his left foot, dislodged in the fall, remained behind on the brilliantly lighted floor.

Police Relief Fund.

The document said the money is to be given in "recognition of the help given me by members of the force in crossing streets when my sight became impaired."

Other charitable and personal bequests, totaling some $50,000 were contained in the will.
